

A journey through the most beautiful cycling routes in Spain

Fietssport and BKOOL invite you to a new concept of virtual competition, where you will discover amazing landscapes without leaving your home.

Fietssport goes Spain by BKOOL is the latest indoor cycling competition from the National Dutch Cycling Union. This is a digital event made up of 5 different stages, with different regions of Spain as the backdrop.

The routes in video and 3D in each stage have been carefully selected in order to offer a spectacular immersive experience for the participants.

With a large part of the world affected by restrictions on movements, and with historically severe weather events, this new concept of competition is a breath of fresh air for lovers of Cycling. Without even having to leave home, it will be possible to transport your training sessions to some of the most stunning landscapes in Spain, enjoy the marvelous coastline, or explore some of the most emblematic valleys.

To participate, the only requirement is to have a Smart trainer for a bicycle and to be a user of the BKOOL indoor cycling app. You just need to complete each stage within the proposed dates to have your name included in the classification, where you can join hundreds of cyclists from different countries. The proposed stages and dates are as follows:

- Stage 1: Rocacorba climb (FEB 11 - FEB 17).
- Stage 2: Port de Pollença - Tramuntana (FEB 18 - FEB 24).
- Stage 3: Caboalles - Matarrosa (FEB 25 - MAR 3).
- Stage 4: Medina-Algarrobo (MAR 4 - MAR 10).
- Stage 5: Sotogrande - Arenillas - Secadero (MAR 11 - MAR 17).

And the best part is you can participate completely for free thanks to the 30 free trial offered by BKOOL on their website.

In addition, each week BKOOL and Fietssport will organize Group Rides to complete the stages alongside special guests from the National Dutch Cycling Federation and hundreds of Bkoolers from all over the world.

Who said that practicing indoor cycling means you can't enjoy nature? Fietssport goes Spain is the closest we can get to seeing Spanish landscape on a bike. A 100% realistic, social and exciting experience. Have you signed up yet?

About Bkool:

Bkool (www.bkool.com) is an immersive sports company that is shaping the future of indoor training. With Bkool you can experience training that adapts to your level in your home and gives you the opportunity to explore any route in the world with stunning 3D graphics as you connect with like-minded cyclists from all over the globe. In addition, Bkool offers hundreds of fitness classes giving users access to professional instructors from the comfort of their home.